

TUITION POLICIES

- The school handbook must contain the Standard Financial Language for Student Handbooks which has been reviewed by the Presidents' Finance Committee.
 - According to Archdiocesan policy, if a student's family is not current in its payment of tuition and fees, the following results:
 - No student will be permitted to start a new school year with any outstanding balance from a previous year. Any exceptions must be approved by Educational Financial Services.
 - Rosters for a new school year will not be released unless all tuition and fees for the previous school year have been paid.
 - Families may not be more than 90 days in arrears on payments at any time. Failure to cooperate may result in dismissal for non-payment of tuition.
-

TUITION POLICIES

- Seniors who have not fully met their financial obligations will not be able to participate in graduation ceremonies and will not be granted a diploma.
- Students may not attend a class dance (Senior Prom, Junior Prom, Sophomore/Freshmen dance) unless they are current in their tuition payments.
- Students may not purchase a class ring or participate in any ring functions.
- Transcripts may not be released for students who are not current in their payments.
- Final reports may not be released if there is an outstanding balance.

